50X1-HUM

1. Work was begun in August 1949 on the establishment of five new Yugoslav State-operated farms, three in Macedonia and one each in Dalmatia and Slovenia.
2. Until August, there were six experimental State-operated farms in Yugoslavia. These farms which have yielded excellent results and are claimed by the Yugoslavs to be much superior to the Soviet ones, have been engaged in the production of the Kok-sagyz rubber bearing plant for the manufacture of tires, insulating material and other rubber products.
